AGENDA

I. Introductions

II. Input for WIA Plan

Describe the role and responsibilities of the Business Service Representatives in the Local Workforce Area. Include active local business partnerships and how collaborations between the Local Workforce Area and Employment Service staff will be synthesized to coordinate business and employer services.

Describe how the Local Workforce Area will coordinate efforts of the multiple programs included in the plan to meet the needs of business customers of the One-Stop system in an integrated fashion, such as hiring plans, training needs, skill development, or other identified needs. The Local Business Plan should also describe how the Local Workforce Area will use program funds to expand the participation of business in the local/regional workforce investment system.

III. What the public workforce system does for businesses, or perceives it does to help businesses

Serve job-ready customers, employers, job clubs, On-the-Job training, job development, business development (?) job matching, customized recruitment, job fairs, employability (soft skills reminders), resume help, rapid response, training need development, business surveys.

IV. What do businesses need?

V. What is the role of One Stop system with temp agencies?

VI. What is the role of the public workforce system in helping companies identify/upgrade incumbent worker needs?
