Re: Resignation of Chief Deputy County Administrator Martin Willett

Attached is the resignation letter of Mr. Willett from his part-time position.

Mr. Willett has provided 27 years of invaluable public service to Pima County, our residents and taxpayers. As Chief Deputy County Administrator, he undertook a variety of tasks; but, most importantly, he was the County's lead staff person for our intergovernmental program, including guiding contract lobbyists operating on behalf of Pima County at the Arizona Legislature and in Washington, DC.

Mr. Willett gained a well-deserved reputation as a consummate professional representing Pima County. His levelheaded, commonsense approach to representing the position of Pima County served us well.

Mr. Willett will be missed by both the staff and elected officials of Pima County.
