Re: Appointment of David Hatfield to the Pima County Communications Office

Mr. David Hatfield, editor of Inside Tucson Business (ITB), will be joining the Pima County Communications Office at the end of September as a Communications Coordinator. His last day at ITB, the publication he has led since November 2004, will be September 27.

Mr. Hatfield brings extensive media background to our Communications Office. Prior to his tenure at ITB, he spent 22 years at KVOA TV Channel 4, working in a variety of roles, including marketing, creative services, ratings research and programming.

Previously, he spent nearly a decade at the Arizona Daily Star, covering a multitude of beats, including serving as the County reporter back when the 11th Floor housed not only the Board of Supervisors, but the County Manager and the Board Hearing Room.

As Communications Coordinator, Mr. Hatfield will develop and disseminate information about Pima County government, programs and services, with an emphasis on strategic planning, to provide timely and accurate information to the residents of Pima County.
