For Immediate Release

Pima County Supervisor Ray Carroll is accepting applications for the Trial Court Appointments Commission. Commission members nominate applicants to the governor for judicial openings on the Pima County Superior Court.

Applicants must be residents of Arizona for at least five years and reside in Pima County for the past year.

Applicants must not be registered Republican to be appointed to this four-year volunteer position.

Elected officials, judges, retired judges, or attorneys admitted to practice before the AZ Supreme Court may not be considered for this position.

Applications will be accepted until November 23, 2012.

For more information on how to apply, contact Paula Maxwell in Supervisor Ray Carroll's office, 724-8094.
