This session will explore the fastest-growing demographic in the Latino community (and within the CHCI Alumni Association) as they rise to become the leaders of tomorrow, forging new pathways and redefining what “success” means for them. For the Latino community, success is colored by cultural identity, morality, gender relations, family dynamics, socioeconomic, and generational status among others. Session participants will hear from renowned experts, engage with a panel of Millennial leaders on how they are achieving success, and take part in a dynamic training led by nationally-recognized leadership expert Shelley Row on “Infotuition™: Your Key to Complex Decisions in Leadership and Life.”

5:00pm—7:00pm

CHCI Alumni Association Reception in Honor of Chiefs of Staff

JP Morgan Chase & Co. 601 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, North Building, Suite 700

CHCI and CHCI Alumni Association (CHCI-AA), in partnership with the Congressional Hispanic Staff Association (CHSA), are hosting a special reception honoring Congressional Chiefs of Staff who have demonstrated their commitment to promoting diversity on Capitol Hill. The honorees have played a pivotal role in ensuring that young Latinos are hired, offered opportunities to grow, and advance professionally. We congratulate them on their recognition – it takes leaders to bring forth leaders. To RSVP, please contact Christian Arana (carana@chci.org; 202-548-8799)
