

Eighth Annual HOPE Career Expo, will be held Thursday February 27, 2014 from 10:00am-2:00 pm at the Hotel Tucson-Inn Suites, Downtown Tucson.

Our Goal: Our goal is to promote careers in social services and behavioral health.

HOPE Expo is a workforce development collaborative effort among human services/behavioral health agencies in Southern Arizona and local academic institutions.

Is there a charge to attend the HOPE Expo? There is no charge to attend the expo.

Who should attend the expo?

- Job seekers interested in a career in human services/social work and the behavioral health field; or
- Students interested in an internship with a local agency; or
- If you are thinking of going back to school and want to learn about educational programs that would lead to a career in human services/behavioral health.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet employment and internship representatives from the various social service/behavioral health agencies in southern Arizona, and academic representatives from Arizona State University, Northern Arizona University, Pima Community College, Tohono O'odham Community College, University of Arizona, and the University of Phoenix.
