Jan Leshner

Deputy County Administrator,
Pima County

Jan was born, raised, and educated in Tucson, Arizona. She holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Arizona. Jan's professional experience and her contributions to the Community are extensive and impressive.

She served as Vice-President of Communications and Marketing for the Tucson Economic Development Corporation, Executive Director of the Tucson Community Cable Corporation and Vice-President of Warner-Amex Cable. She founded Leshner Communications in 1990, handling corporate, public, and government relations for various entities. Jan joined Janet Napolitano's gubernatorial staff in 2003, serving, first, as the Director of the Southern Arizona Office, then as Director of the Department of Commerce and, finally, as Chief of Staff for the Governor. In 2009, Jan accepted the prestigious position of Chief of Staff Operations for former Arizona Governor and Department of Homeland Security Secretary Napolitano when Janet was appointed to the Obama administration. As the Chief of Staff Operations, Jan was responsible for the oversight of the daily activities of the agency's 230,000 employees and $52 billion budget. In 2010, Jan returned to her hometown of Tucson and joined Pima County, becoming the Deputy County Administrator in 2011.

Jan has given back to her Community by serving as a member of the Boards of Directors of the Commerce and Economic Development Commission; Arizona Town Hall; the Greater Arizona Development Authority; the Community Food Bank; and La Frontera Center. She was named a Woman of Influence by Inside Tucson Business in 2004 and was the Metropolitan Tucson Chamber of Commerce Woman of the Year in 2005. In 2008, she was the Arizona Capitol Times Leader of the Year in Public Policy and received the YWCA Business Leadership Award.
