Population of Youth in Pima County vs. Youth Detention Population

2011 Population Representation

- African American
- Asian Pacific Islander
- Native American
- Anglo
- Hispanic/Latino
- Other

- In 2011, Youth Population with in Juvenile Detention decreased by nearly 56% since 2001.
- The percentage has dramatically decreased but the issue of Disproportionate Minority Contact/or Confinement (DMC) still exist. The Community Task Force and The Juvenile Courts gather weekly to create discussion and make decisions to solve DMC.
- Providing a safe space for youth to go when they exit the juvenile justice system is a great step towards ensuring youth stay out of prison.

System Stakeholders: The Pima County Juvenile Justice Task Force on Racial & Ethnic Disparities

TUCSON, AZ

COMMUNITY TASK FORCE

The Pima County Juvenile Justice Task Force on Racial & Ethnic Disparities (PCJJTFRED) educates the public about the Juvenile Justice System and the policies and procedures that impact youth and their families. The Community Task Force's goals include:

1. Creating and connecting youth to culturally relevant community programs to reduce recidivism rates, especially among economically and/or racially marginalized youth.
2. Helping youth and their families navigate the juvenile justice system to ensure successful completion of their probation.
3. Holding all stakeholders accountable for all youth involved with the system to become healthy and productive members in their community.

To: C.H. Huckelberry
County Administrator

From: Maura Kwiatkowski
Chief Administrative Assistant

Re: Administration Office Beverage Purchases

This memorandum is to request your authorization to utilize the County Administrator's Office P-card to purchase coffee and related condiments for the office. We regularly serve coffee during meetings and to visitors to the County Administrator's Office.

Although coffee and related condiments are available for purchase through Staples, their pricing is not cost effective; these items can be purchased at approximately one half the cost at area grocery and/or discount stores.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.
