Looking northwest along UPRR right of way along Port of Tucson, AREA A

Looking southeast along UPRR right of way, at the Port of Tucson Warehouse, AREA A, D

Loop rail track (existing) adjacent to new planned connection, view looking north (AREA C)

Same location as above, looking south to UPRR railbed. (AREA C)

View on proposed connection to the UPRR Right of way, looking southeast (AREA C)

Existing loop track connections to UPPR Right of Way, looking west at the Kolb Road Overpass (AREA B)

Typical existing UPRR mainline along the Right of Way in AREA C

Typical existing adjacent scrub, located at the Port of Tucson, north of the UPRR in AREA C

Existing Culvert for UPRR mainline (north side). New, adjacent structure required. AREA C

Concrete channel shown to left, outlet from Drainage Basin to north east of project site AREA C

Open space between concrete channel and culvert shown above. AREA C

Typical UPRR project area continuing southeast in AREA C

Typical UPRR project area continuing southeast in AREA C

Typical UPRR project area looking northwest, at mile marker 997 in AREA C

XeroRiparian Area at the south eastern extent of AREA C