COMPANY NAME:  American Red Cross

JOB TITLE:  Blood Collection Staff with CDL – Training Provided

JOB DESCRIPTION:
As a Blood Collection Staff member with CDL, you’ll use your CDL license, compassion and customer service skills to assist with transporting equipment and setting up at the collection sites. After completion of our paid Phlebotomy Training program, you will also collect lifesaving blood donations from our volunteer donors and ensure they have the best experience possible. The Red Cross offers paid phlebotomy training with the ability to grow your skills and career within the nation’s top humanitarian organization. To learn more about being a part of our blood collections team, watch this short video: rdcrss.org/lifesavingrole

Responsibilities:
• Take the time to personally connect with donors –
• listen to their stories and help them understand the value of their donation
• Contribute to a friendly and fun environment. Team up with your co-workers to keep our donors coming back again and again.
• Be detailed oriented all day, every day, to ensure that the blood you collect meets goals, regulatory requirements and can be safely transfused.
• To best meet the needs of our donors and community, Blood Collection Staff members with CDLs work a variable schedule including early mornings, late nights, weekends and holidays
• The aforementioned responsibilities of the Blood Collection Staff members with CDLs describe the general nature and level of work and are not an exhaustive list
