PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL MISSION

2020-2021

Pima Vocational High School (PVHS) is a public charter school that welcomes youth ages 16 to 21 who want to meet Arizona State requirements for a high school diploma and obtain a sustainable job through career oriented work experience in an applied academic setting. Our program targets students who have previously dropped out of school or are at risk of not completing high school and provides on-site supportive social services to enable the students to take responsibility for their own education, career and life choices. Our comprehensive programs are provided within a small school learning community utilizing best practices for reconnecting out-of-school youth.

PROCEDURES FOR STUDENT PLACEMENT

Pima Vocational High School will assess the competency level of all students who enroll in classes.

Each student must attend an Orientation Program (in which an academic assessment is made) and be interviewed before enrolling in school.

The student’s performance on our current researched based assessment program will determine their placement in the curriculum.
A student whose primary language is other than English will be assessed and placed in an English Language Learning (EL) program if needed.

Instructors will determine the depth and length of any remediation required. Courses could include: EL Reading, Reading Comprehension, Spelling, Language Arts, Science, and Math Skills. Small group or individual tutoring may be assigned.

A copy of the student’s assessment will be placed in his or her school record.

All students enrolled at PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL will have a personal graduation and career development plan. This plan will determine and direct the student’s goals, objectives, activity and progress evaluation.

ADMISSION

Admission is open to all students ages sixteen (16) through twenty-one (21) with documentation that they have completed the eighth (8th) grade. Students unable to provide the eighth grade documentation shall be referred to the Director’s office for review and consideration.

This record shall be documentary proof that immunization has been provided or the student is exempted from immunization as provided in ARS 15-873, due to personal beliefs or medical reasons.

EXEMPTIONS
In accordance with Arizona Revised Statutes 15-873 on Exemptions, documentary proof is not required for student to be admitted to school if one of the following occurs:

Or, the Director receives written certification, signed by the parent or guardian, and by a physician, that states one or more of the required immunizations may be detrimental to the student’s health and indicates the specific nature and probable duration of the medical condition or circumstance which precludes immunization.

An exemption pursuant to subsection A, paragraph 2 is only valid during the duration of the circumstance or condition that precludes immunization.

Pupils who lack documentary proof of immunization shall not attend school during outbreak periods of communicable immunization-preventable diseases as determined by the department of health services or local health department. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY
PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL provides equal opportunity to all persons without regard to race, disability, color, creed, religion, gender, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, or other non-job related factors. We also promote the full realization of this policy through a positive, continuing program of affirmative action. We strive for a staff that reflects diversity.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITY ACT POLICY
PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL welcomes applications from people with disabilities and does not discriminate against them in any way. PVHS complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 in the following ways:
A. Consider all applicants with disabilities for admission and employment using the same criteria as are used for admission or the employment of persons without disabilities.
B. Consider students and employees with disabilities for promotions using the same criteria that are used for the promotion of students and employees without disabilities.
C. Take steps to make its facilities barrier free and accessible according to appropriate federal and state statutes.
D. Make scheduling and other adjustments to reasonably accommodate students and employees with disabilities.
E. Educate students and employees to the fact that individuals with disabilities should not be discriminated against.
F. Pima Vocational High School shall post notices explaining the provisions of ADA, staff and student rights under the law.

A lack of English language skills shall not be a barrier to admission or acceptance into any program, including vocational education.
Admission is open to all students’ ages sixteen (16) through twenty-one (21) who completed the eighth (8th) grade or received permission to enroll from the Director’s office.
WAITING LIST

PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL will make every attempt to accommodate students seeking admission. However, a limited number of students can be enrolled at each campus. When that limit is reached, a waiting list is established based on the student’s pre-enrollment date and program interest.

The waiting list is comprised of two parts: Part A. for students needing five (5) or fewer credits to graduate; Part B. for students needing more than five (5) credits to graduate. Should two or more students enroll on the same date, a lottery will be conducted by the Director’s office to determine the next student to be enrolled.

A student dropped for lack of academic progress, attendance or behavior problems MAY NOT be allowed to re-enroll in PIMA VOCATIONAL SCHOOL programs during the same session. The student may request re-enrollment for the following session through the Director’s office, although there is no re-enrollment guarantee. Potential new students are given priority over returning students.

A student currently enrolled at one site, who requests (after consultation) a transfer to another site will be given that opportunity, provided the student is in “good standing”.

PROGRESS REPORTS AND REPORT CARDS

The teachers will ensure that progress reports are given to each student at the end of each session, during the school year. Progress reports for students under the age of 18 will also be mailed home. The student’s advisor will issue student transcripts, with grades, each session. Students are responsible for bringing any discrepancies to attention of the advisor. After one session, the GRADES WILL STAND AS ASSIGNED.

STUDENT RECORDS

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT
PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This act protects the privacy of educational records, establishes the rights to students to inspect and review their educational records, and provides guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings.

PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL hereby designates the following categories of information as directory information:

1. Students’ names, addresses, telephone numbers, dates and places of birth;
2. Programs of study, full time or part-time status, dates of attendance;

PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL assumes that failure on the part of any student to specifically request the withholding of public information indicates individual approval for disclosure.

MISSING STUDENTS

Arizona Revised Statues 15-829 requires that when a parent notifies the police department that their student is missing, then the police are to notify the school. The school is then required to “flag” the student’s records and notify local law enforcement agencies if the records have been requested by an in-state or out-of-state agency. Should a law enforcement agency notify any PVHS personnel that a student is missing, that person is required to immediately notify the Director. The Director or administrative designee will ensure that all records of the missing student are flagged and monitored.
GUIDELINES FOR STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In order to provide and maintain an environment that is safe and positive for learning, PVHS adopted the following Guidelines for Student rights and Responsibilities that include:

- Specified rights and responsibilities of students;
- Descriptions of conduct which violate those rights and responsibilities;
- A standardized procedure which the school will use in responding to conduct problems; and
- The rights of students when disciplinary action is taken.

As students progress through school, it is reasonable to assume that an increase in age and maturity carries with it a greater responsibility for their actions. Differences in age, conditions and maturity are recognized in determining the type of disciplinary action to be taken. However, the procedures outlined in the Guidelines for Student rights and Responsibilities apply to all students in grades 9 through 12.

THE RIGHTS OF STUDENTS

A student has:
1. The right to a quality education;
2. The right to an education without undue interruption, disruption, fear, or inhibition;
3. The right to freedom of expression through first amendment rights as long as there is no interference with the orderly conduct of classes and activities, no forcing others to participate, and no violation of the rights of persons who may disagree;
4. The right to clear guidelines for rights and responsibilities conduct and to know the consequences of misconduct;
5. The right to receive respect from school staff and other students, and the right to tell the director and other school staff about persons who show disrespect;
6. The right to freedom of speech and symbolic expression, within the guidelines and policies of Pima Vocational High School, which does not include inflammatory dress, violating PVHS uniform dress code, speech, behavior, or publication;

12. The right to full access of opportunities within the educational environment without discrimination by sex, sexual preference, religious beliefs, ethnic background, nationality, or disability. This includes the availability of all support services which promote the development of student potential;
13. The right to protection and confidentiality when fulfilling the responsibility to report violations of the guidelines.
PHILOSOPHY OF DISCIPLINE

Learning to control and manage oneself is one of the most important life processes. Discipline at PVHS relates directly to adjusting and coping successfully with society. Discipline is the process through which persons discover not only their rights and the rights of peers, but also the responsibilities for the proper functioning of the school and their community. Through this process of respect for the individual, regardless of race, color, sex, creed, intelligence, disability, or age, valuable insights are acquired in the relationships of people and the consequences of positive and/or negative behaviors.

Discipline, viewed in this sense, is the process of helping students learn to live and work together productively. This importance is reflected in the teaching – learning process of the school curriculum. It warrants the constant cooperative consideration of all the school personnel, especially teachers, the key agents of learning. Discipline must be learned by every student and is a basic objective of every classroom and consequently, every staff person.

All PIMA VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL personnel administering discipline to students should always follow discipline procedures for disabled students in the Special Education programs, Section 504 disabled students, and for students who have a referral for evaluation pending.

These Guidelines are in force:
- During regular school hours;
- While being transported to sanctioned activities by PVHS;
- At times and places where the Director or other school officials or employees have jurisdiction over students;
- During school-sponsored events;
- During field trips;
- During athletic functions;
- When going to and from school;
- During other activities associated with the school in any way.

Additionally, the Director is authorized to begin disciplinary action when a student’s misconduct away from school has a detrimental effect on the other students or on the orderly educational process because the violation is directly connected to prior violations at school, or threatens to produce further violations at school.
