Re: Volunteer Release & Waiver of Liability for Pima Air and Space Museum & Titan Missile Museum

Recently there have been letters and articles in the Green Valley News regarding a change of policy for Volunteer Release forms used at the Titan Missile Museum. Our Attractions & Tourism Director reached out to Scott Marchand, Executive Director of Pima Air & Space Museum/Arizona Aerospace Foundation, which operates both Titan and the Pima Air and Space Museum for additional information. Mr. Marchand confirmed the Titan Missile Museum is a department of the AAF and is administratively the same as Pima Air & Space Museum in terms of all policies and procedures pertaining to the staff and volunteers at both properties. The same waiver was implemented at PASM as the one at Titan per the Volunteer Protection Act of 1997.
