Pima County Board of Supervisors

County Administrator

Re: Southwestern Fair Commission, Inc. Event Revenues and Expenses

A request was made associated with events at the County Fairgrounds. The Southwestern Fair Commission operates the Fairgrounds on behalf of the County and provided the attached list of events that have generated revenue.

I believe the Board's request was to determine the revenues from gun shows. In the attached list, the gun show is known as the Crossroads of the West with $64,453 in revenue and $20,941 in expenses.

As has been previously indicated, the Fairgrounds are on property owned by the County; hence, any restriction of gun sales on County property could be construed as beyond our authority as specified in the legal analysis completed by the County Attorney.
