YOUTH RE-ENGAGEMENT

Goodwill's METRO Program provides youth re-engagement services that connect out-of-school and/or unemployed Opportunity Youth (OY) ages 16-24 with career pathways, training, case management, resource fairs, youth bereavement groups, access to academic and community resources. Youth can also explore their artistic and musical skills.

REC Youth Center offers:

- Needs assistance (bus passes, clothing, food, school supplies, etc.)
- Assistance with educational goals (HS diploma, GED & industry credentials)
- Career Counseling (Job search, training, and career pathways)
- Quarterly events like job fairs, outdoor activities, social BBQs, service learning projects
- Mentoring
- United Youth Leadership Council (ages 18-24)
