

TENANT CHECKLIST

Actions a Tenant Must Take Based on

Executive Order 2020-49 (Continued Postponement of Eviction Enforcement Actions)

- Governor Ducey delayed the enforcement of eviction orders for tenants experiencing qualifying medical or financial hardships through August 21, 2020 and financial hardships through October 31, 2020 due to COVID-19.
- To be eligible for a continuing delay in the enforcement of eviction from your residence, by August 21, 2020, or if you request a delay after that date, you must:
 1. Renotify or notify your landlord or property owner in writing with supporting documentation of your ongoing financial hardship due to a substantial loss of income resulting from COVID-19 including job loss or lay off, reduction in pay, child care responsibility, or a quarantine order;
 2. Request a payment plan;
 3. Provide your landlord or property owner a copy of a completed pending application for rental assistance through a state, city, county or nonprofit rental assistance program with any available supporting documentation; and
 4. Acknowledge that the contractual terms of the lease remain in effect.

STEPS YOU NEED TO TAKE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE:

1. Apply for a government or nonprofit rental assistance program and make a copy of the pending application to provide to the landlord or property owner.
2. Gather documentation that is proof of your substantial loss of income from your pre-pandemic income level. Examples may include:
 - A letter of employment separation or lay off.
 - Pay stubs or pay history for January, 2020 to present.
 - Documentation of any unemployment benefits you received.
 - A quarantine order from a doctor or public health authority.
 - A letter to parents regarding K-12 school closure or remote instruction.
 - Any other documents that show financial hardship due to COVID-19.
3. Notify your landlord or property owner or that person's representative of your loss of income and request a payment plan.
4. Provide the documentation that you gathered to your landlord or property owner when you provide notice and keep copies for your records and to provide, as needed, to a constable or other law enforcement officer and to the court.
5. Keep notes of conversations with your landlord or property owner about a payment plan and other matters.
6. Be prepared to explain to the judge why the payment plan you have offered is fair and reasonable considering your COVID-19 and financial circumstances and why it is in the interest of justice for you to stay in your residence.
