

2. The terms and conditions which are imposed as a condition to the granting or the continued existence of a conditional order shall include:
 - a. A detailed plan for completion of corrective steps needed to conform to the provisions of A.R.S. Title 49, Chapter 3, Article 3, this title and the requirements of any permit issued pursuant to this title.
 - b. A requirement that necessary construction shall begin as specified in the compliance schedule.
 - c. Written reports, at least quarterly, of the status of the source and construction progress.
 - d. The right of the control officer to make periodic inspection of the facilities for which the conditional order is granted.
 - e. Such additional terms and conditions as the control officer finds necessary to meet the requirements of this section and A.R.S. § 49-437.
3. A holder of a conditional order may petition the control officer to renew the order. The total term of the initial period and all renewals shall not exceed three years from the date of original issuance of the order. Petitions for renewal may be filed at any time, but no more than sixty days, or less than thirty days prior to the expiration of the order. The control officer, within thirty days of receipt of a petition, shall renew the conditional order for one year if the petitioner is in compliance and conforming with the terms and conditions imposed by the Control Officer. The Control Officer may refuse to renew the conditional order if, after a public hearing held within thirty days of receipt of a petition, the control officer finds that the petitioner is not in compliance and conforming with the terms and conditions of the conditional order. If, after a period of three years from the date of original issuance the petitioner is not in compliance and conforming with the terms and conditions, the control officer may renew a conditional order for a total term of two additional years only if the control officer finds that failure to comply and conform to conditions would be in the control of such petitioner.
4. If the control officer amends or adds any new imposing condition on the operation of an air pollution source which have become effective as a result of action by the control officer or otherwise, and which require the implementation of control strategies necessitating the installation of additional or different air pollution control equipment, the control officer may renew a conditional order for an additional term. The term of the renewal shall be governed by the provisions of this section, except that the total term of the renewal shall not exceed two years.
5. A conditional order issued by the control officer shall be effective when issued unless:
 - a. The conditional order varies from the requirements of the applicable implementation plan, in which case the conditional order shall be submitted to the administrator as a revision to the applicable implementation plan pursuant to Section 110(L) of the Act (Implementation Plans), and shall become effective upon approval by the administrator.
 - b. The conditional order varies from the requirements of a permit issued for a facility that is required to obtain a permit pursuant to Title V of the Act (Permits), in which case the conditional order shall be submitted to the administrator if required by Section 505 of the Act (Notification to Administrator and Contiguous States), and shall be effective at the end of the review period specified in such section, unless objected to within such period by the administrator.
- G. If the terms and conditions of the conditional order are being violated, the control officer may seek to revoke or suspend the conditional order. In such event, the control officer shall serve notice of such violation on the holder of the conditional order in the manner provided in A.R.S. § 49-498. The notice shall specify the nature of such violation and the date on which a hearing will be held to determine if a violation has occurred and whether the conditional order should be suspended or revoked. The date of the hearing shall be within thirty days from the date the notice is served upon the holder of the conditional order.
