

Construction of the Box Culvert Storm Drain

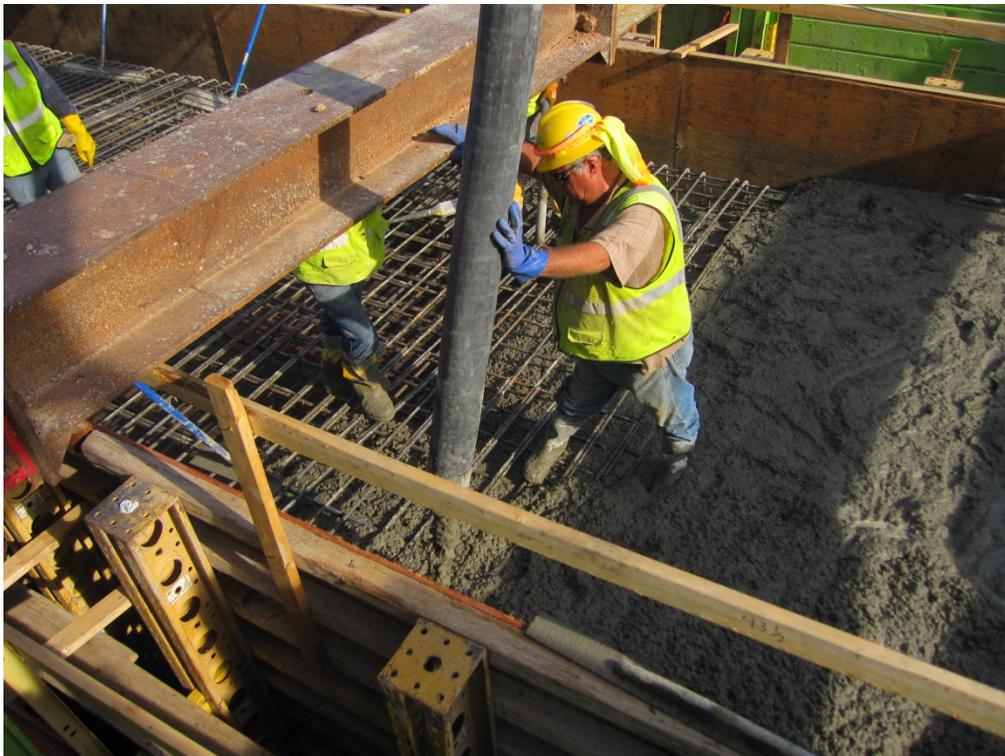

20 foot deep excavation protected with steel shoring

Pouring the side walls of the box culvert storm drain

Pouring the concrete roof or top of the storm drain

Pouring the concrete roof or top of the storm drain

Floating or leveling the top surface of the storm drain

Shoring is not required where adequate working space is available

Preparing the forms for the top slab

Connecting the curve section to the straight section

Inside the completed box culvert storm drain