

The Pima County Finance and Risk Management Department administers a Workers' Compensation program as set out by administrative procedures which comply with State statutes.