Agua Caliente Park

This unique oasis in the desert supports diverse wildlife, natural and cultural resources, and is a popular destination for outdoor recreation, family outings, wildlife viewing, and school field trips. While you are at the park stop in for a tour of the Ranch House Visitor Center and Art Gallery or shop in Tucson Audubon Society's Nature Shop. Agua Caliente Ranch Rural Historic Landscape is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

Park open from 7:00 a.m.-Sunset every day of the year

Visit www.pima.gov/nrpr for the calendar of activities

Ranch House Visitor Center and Art Gallery

Plan Ahead for Group Gatherings

A Group Use Permit is required for all functions with 20 or more guests. The maximum group size is 40 guests. The Group Use Permit is free. A Group Use Permit does not guarantee parking or a specific location in the park. All sites are on a first come basis. All group activities must conclude before sunset.

You may bring in a few chairs if seating is required, but rows of folding chairs, carpet runners, arches, or multiple table set ups are not allowed. Areas not available for group activities: the Ranch House Visitor Center, Rose Cottage, Bunkhouse, patios, and island.
