

Pima County Filming Permit Short Form

This request will be used when the proposed application is being made by a photographer for a one day, limited scope shoot such as wedding pictures, team photographs, family photograph, etc. For requests involving more complex productions that require multiple crew members, multiple vehicles and special equipment, requests needing road control measures or unique accommodations, please visit the web page maintained by the Pima County Department of Attractions and Tourism for Filming/Still Photography Special Use Permits: <https://web1.pima.gov/attractions/forms/>.

For commercial photography, minimum liability insurance requirements are $1 million general aggregate and $1 million per occurrence, naming "Pima County and its Districts" as additional insured. Such insurance shall be kept in force throughout the life of the permit. All policies will contain an endorsement providing that written notice be given to NRPR at least ten (ten) calendar days prior to cancellation or reduction in coverage. CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE FOR COVERAGE LISTING PIMA COUNTY AS ADDITIONAL INSURED AS DESCRIBED ABOVE SHALL BE FILED WITH NRPR PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT OF ANY ACTIVITY. Allow a 3 working day processing period once all the necessary documents are received by Pima County NRPR.
