

Tour Guide- Agua Caliente Park - Volunteer Position Description

Purpose

Agua Caliente Park Tour Guides greet visitors and lead informal tours of the Agua Caliente Historic Ranch House and lead or assist with scheduled tours for the general public, organized groups, and special events. Volunteer Tour Guides interpret the historic buildings, cultural history, and natural resources at Agua Caliente Park.

Requirements

1. Complete and submit NRPR Volunteer Application form
2. Participate in Volunteer Orientation meeting to discuss volunteer service and complete required paperwork.
3. Choose an area(s) of service and commit to approximately 4 hours per month for at least one year.
4. Complete training required for specific volunteer position.
5. Review and sign volunteer service agreement specific to the volunteer position.
6. Wear a volunteer badge, dress appropriately, and represent Pima County in a positive and professional manner.
7. Record your hours for each day worked and attendance at trainings, meetings and continuing education sessions.
8. Volunteers are encouraged to participate in continuing education sessions, trainings, volunteer meetings, and/or field trips.

Training

Tour Guides receive informal training provided by staff and experienced volunteers.

Time Commitment and Scheduling

Tour Guides must commit to an average of 4-hours per month. All volunteers are encouraged to attend continuing education talks, classes and outings arranged by the volunteer coordinator. Tour Guide scheduling is coordinated by staff as designated.

Benefits of Volunteering with NRPR

1. Contribute to your community and enrich the lives of others through volunteer service.
2. Further the mission of Pima County Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation.
3. Receive an in-depth learning experience in the volunteer training course.
4. Learn about the natural and cultural history of the area through volunteer meetings and field trips.
5. Meet and socialize with other like-minded individuals through your participation in the volunteer program.
6. Receive Volunteer newsletters and notifications of Volunteer events and opportunities.
7. Receive discounts on NRPR Outdoor Activities, Tours, and Events program registration fees.
8. Enjoy NRPR Volunteer recognition events specific to your area of volunteer service.