

Homer Davis school children worked with artist Rebecca Carlton to hand paint all the tiles needed to create the two dragons. The dragons will be displayed on two art walls to be built in front of the school.

