Some people still wear masks because they may have:

- Cancer.
- An autoimmune disease.
- High-risk loved ones, including unvaccinated children, they are protecting.
- Asthma symptoms that are alleviated by a mask.
- Symptoms of illness, and they want to protect you.

PLEASE BE KIND.