RED Discussion

Pastor Grady Scott

Manny Mejias

Karla Avalos

Purpose:

Community dialogue about the impacts of incarceration and disparities to Pima County residents, families, and communities.

- Personal stories
- Small group discussions
- Summary reports
- Discuss next steps

Listen - Understand – Act

Guidelines to Courageous Conversations

Guidelines to Courageous Conversations

- Everyone participates, no one dominates
- Listen to understand
- Use “I” statements
- One speaker at a time
- Share your experience (not the experience of others)
- Speak honestly
- All ideas are valid
- Critique ideas, not people
- Be positive, non-judgmental and open to new ideas

Guidelines to Courageous Conversations

- Respect each others' thinking and value their contributions
- Treat everything you hear as an opportunity to learn and grow
- With transformation, expect anxiety
- Speak your truth, without blame or judgment
- Be intrigued by the difference you hear
- Expect to be surprised
- Whatever is said in the room stays in the room
- Ask "what's possible?" not "what's wrong"? Keep asking

- What are the impacts of disparities and incarceration?
 - How do they affect us as individuals? As a community?
- How can our community work to address disparities in a healthy and meaningful way?
 - Individual goals, roles, and challenges for addressing disparities
- What does success look like?
 - How do we collectively develop strategies that reduce disparities?
