Re: Rescheduling the May 30, 2013 Pima County Bond Advisory Committee Meeting

Dear Mayor Rothschild:

Thank you for your letter of May 22, 2013 in response to my invitation to attend the May 30, 2013 Bond Advisory Committee (BAC) meeting. You are likely aware this meeting was cancelled due to a noticing issue.

We would like to reschedule this meeting as soon as possible. In speaking with BAC Chairman Larry Hecker, we agreed that we would work with your schedule to facilitate your attendance at this important meeting.

Please let us know if you will be able to attend the next BAC meeting.

Sincerely,

Dear Chuck:

I have received your invitation to attend the county's May 30 bond committee meeting. Thank you for the invitation, however, I will be unable to attend this meeting. Assistant City Manager Kelly Gottschalk will attend and represent the city.

Regarding the city's requested projects, as you know, the city is in the process of appointing members to its bond committee. That committee will serve two main purposes:

One will be to review and strategize regarding what projects city voters would most likely support in a county bond issue.

The other will be to determine what, if any, projects specific to the city should be supported by city voters in a future city bond election.

Also, I have been provided with your May 3, 2013 correspondence, and it would be our goal to have the city's projects and recommendations to you no later than March 2014, as you request.

City staff, our bond committee and I look forward to working closely with the county on the contemplated bond initiative.

Sincerely,
