

Our Past is Our Future

Expanding Old Tucson into a Multi-Cultural Heritage Center

A project of the Arizona Sonora Western Heritage Foundation

The Arizona Sonora Western Heritage Foundation is committed to the preservation, promotion, and authentic presentation of the heritage of the Sonoran West. Donors and supporters of any kind can rest assured that everything we do reflects that aim with historic integrity and responsible use of resources.

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Old Tucson Multi-Cultural Heritage Center

1846-47

Mexican American War

1849

California Gold Rush

1853

Gadsden Purchase

1854

Copper is discovered in AZ

1856

U.S. Camel Corps

1857

San Antonio to San Diego Stagecoach Mail line, Tucson becomes major supply line

1861-1865

Civil War

1862

Tucson occupied by Southern Forces, Capture of Tucson by Union Forces

1866

Tully, Ochoa & Co Merchandize Business, Zechaendorf & Co Merchandize Business

1867

Tucson becomes capital of Arizona Territory

1869

St. Ausustine Roman Catholic Church Built

1870

Arizona Citizen begins publication

1872

Public School Department organized, Population: 3,500

1873

San Diego to Tucson Telegraph, Ft. Lowell Built

1877

Tucson Incorporated

1879

Arizona Daily Star begins publication

1880

Southern Pacific Railroad begins operating, St. Mary's Hospital opens, Population: 7007

1881

Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe begin operating

1883

City Chartered, Electric lights

1891

University of Arizona opens

1893

Arizona State Museum established

1897

Roman Catholic Diocese of Tucson established

1898-1901

Spanish American War

1899

First Cars arrive in Tucson, Population: 7,531

1906

Mule drawn streetcar retired, Electric Streetcar, University of Arizona to downtown

1907

Southern Pacific Railway Station built

1912

Arizona becomes a State, Population: 13,193

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Tucson's History from 1850-1912

Farming

Transportation

Military

Downtown

Entry

- Legend
- New Buildings
 - Existing Buildings
 - Repurposed Buildings
 - Theme Areas
 - Railroad
 - Plaza

Downtown

Mexican Village

Ranching

Heritage Festival

Military

Entry

Native American Village

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

the architecture company | www.architecturecompany.net

Expanding Old Tucson into a Multi-Cultural Heritage Center

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Entry

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Military

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Farming

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Transportation

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Downtown

Farming

Transportation

Military

Downtown

Entry

- Legend
- New Buildings
 - Existing Buildings
 - Repurposed Buildings
 - Theme Areas
 - Railroad
 - Plaza

Downtown

Military

Entry

Native American Village

Farming

Transportation

Mexican Village

Ranching

Heritage Festival

Main Street

Arizona Street

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

the architecture company | www.architecturecompany.net

Expanding Old Tucson into a Multi-Cultural Heritage Center

Our Past is Our Future

Expanding Old Tucson into a Multi-Cultural Heritage Center
A project of the Arizona Sonora Western Heritage Foundation
www.AZSWH.org

Note: Exhibits and structures shown are conceptual and subject to change

Old Tucson Multi-Cultural Heritage Center